Housing Resources

Most students live in Cleveland Heights within three neighborhoods, known as Coventry, North Coventry, and Cedar-Fairmount. Students find this area attractive because of the close proximity to the School of Medicine, grocery store, eateries, and other shops. The Cleveland Heights Housing Office offers a free rental locating service.

There are many neighborhoods just west of the City of Cleveland. Up and coming trendy spots like Ohio City and Tremont offer reasonably priced housing along with eclectic restaurants, bars, and shops. These neighborhoods are a 15-minute drive to campus and have access to the RTA and the Rapid. The City of Lakewood is about 25 minutes away and offers housing similar to Cleveland Heights. Of Interest, you may find the housing to be a little less expensive in Lakewood.
