

The Case Center for Proteomics and Bioinformatics

is sponsoring a workshop on

2D-DIGE Workflow:

An Applied Quantitative Proteomics Tool to Identify Molecular Signatures for Urogenital Dysfunction in Diabetic Rat Model

Presented by

Elizabeth Yohannes, Ph.D. and Chao Yuan, Ph.D.

Senior Research Associates,
Case Center for Proteomics and Bioinformatics

Thursday, April 2nd, 2009 from 9:00 - 11:00 a.m.

Biomedical Research Building

Room 105

For inquiries, please call 216.368.0291

Coffee and muffins will be served